Abstract

The 26th Cavalry Regiment collection is a small collection that is made up entirely of papers dealing with the 26th Cavalry and the Philippines. All but two of the documents in this collection are original.

Scope and Contents of the Materials

The 26th Cavalry Regiment collection contains papers such as amnesty oath documents from the Philippines and a memo from 1944 that is a captured document. The collection also includes a typed document about the guerilla forces in the Philippines. Other material includes notes, a track meet program and part of a map.
